Relate to life with ease

Creativity

Our life,
nothing but a draft
wanting to emerge
from imposed boundaries.

The imprint of our soul
in every word choice.
Magic spells
of unexplored meaning.

May I live
with the endless chance to change what was written.

Shaping
specks of dust
into shimmerings of light.

No answers

to this life,
no strategy
for paradox.

There's pain,
happiness and
impermanence.

No big secret,
no uncovered truths.

Life is so simple
that it's terrifying.

Yet, I have not encountered anything as difficult
as being simple.
